

SOCIETY.

(Continued from Second Page.)

The P. M. is an exclusively medical organization and is one of the largest national fraternities in the country. All visiting alumni will be cordially welcomed at the Chapter House.

Concert at Club.

Lovers of music will be delighted to note that Miss Betty Burwell Booker, always a leading favorite in Richmond, and Mr. Francis Harford, of London, England, will give a concert at the Woman's Club, Thursday evening, October 5th, at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Booker and her mother will arrive in Richmond from the University of Virginia, on Tuesday next.

Possessing a soprano voice of the greatest power and purity, Miss Booker has made for herself, both here and abroad, a reputation of which Richmond, her native city, is justly proud.

Mr. Harford possesses an enviable position in the London world of song and has won high praise for himself since his arrival in America. Concert tickets are for sale at a variety of stores. Branch R. Allen's and the Woman's Club.

The program for the occasion will be as follows:

- Two dialogues: (a) I Prithlee Keep My Sheep, (b) Nicholas Lincoln and Nicholas Lincoln.
- Miss Booker and Mr. Harford: Schumann Nos. 1, II, III, IV, VII, XIII, XV, and XVI.
- (Mr. Harford): Del Aquia.
- Miss Booker: Hamlet.
- Miss Booker: Schumann.

Songs: The Sands of Dee, F. Clay; The Lily Player, Frances Adeline; A Kingdom by the Sea, Arthur Summerville; As of Yonder, R. Coverly; Love is a Fable, C. H. H. Parry; Mr. Harford.

Songs: Come My Life's Delight, W. I. Hursthouse; Soft-voiced Snow, Skurd Lie; Looking Back, M. Roydo; Bluebirds from the Clearings, Ernest Walker; The Wind on the Wood, Miss Booker.

Duets: Cradle, Faure; La Vie en Rose, Giovanni; Mozart; Miss Booker and Mr. Harford; Accompanied—Miss Myrtle Bedford.

Miss Reinhardt Leaves.

Miss Gertrude Reinhardt, the talented and attractive young singer, daughter of Professor Jacob Reinhardt, has entered upon a course of study in vocal music at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore.

Miss Reinhardt has a voice of unusual sweetness and flexibility. She is an enthusiastic and industrious student, and having had the advantage of excellent training during the past year, she gives promise of a brilliant musical future.

Fitzpatrick—Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett A. Brown, of No. 215 South Belvidere Street, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Carolyn Madeline, to Mr. Robert Emmett Fitzpatrick, the ceremony to take place Thursday morning, October 12th, in St. Peter's Cathedral.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Isaac Carrington Morton, who has been visiting Captain T. C. Morton, in Staunton, returned this week to Newport News.

Miss Eva A. Williams and Mr. Floyd W. Ferguson were quietly married Wednesday night in the parlors of the Rev. G. O. O. Meade. The bride was gown in gray, with hat and gloves to match. They will be at home to their friends at No. 294 East Clay Street.

Miss Estelle Cooke, after spending several weeks in Gloucester county and Newport News, has returned home, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Annette R. Boswell, of Newport News, Va.

The Misses Kildall will reopen their dancing class for children on Saturday afternoon, October 6th. They will give their opening sermon on the evening of October 12th in Belvidere Hall.

Mrs. Julia E. Schmidt has returned home after a long stay in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Sparrow's Point and Washington.

Miss Mary P. Greenhow and Miss Sallie W. Greenhow have returned from the mountains and will spend the winter at No. 115 East Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Nelson have returned to the city and are at Miss Fitter's, No. 115 East Franklin Street.

Misses Ella and Lillian Binford have returned to the city and will conduct their dancing classes at Miss Elliott's School, No. 13 North Laurel Street.

Mrs. Crawford, of Athens, Ga., who has been spending some months in the mountains of Virginia and has been visiting Virginia relatives, is the guest in Richmond of Mrs. Helen G. Manson.

Mrs. Daniel Weisger and Mrs. Marie Louise Harrison have returned from the mountains of Virginia and are at No. 115 East Franklin Street for the winter.

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles Stuart are at home to their friends at No. 210 East Clay Street.

Miss Margaret Old, of Norfolk, and Miss Elizabeth Fleming, of Jacksonville, Fla., will be the guests of Miss Ella Binford, this week.

Misses Mary and Edith Murray have returned from a visit to Mrs. C. B. Payne, in Hardware, Va.

Mrs. A. L. Van Pelt, who has been in the Alleghany Mountains for her health, has returned to her home much improved.

Mr. J. M. Lipscomb, Jr., of Low Moor, Va., has been in Richmond for several days.

Master Vincent C. Ansell, Jr., and Master W. Guy Ansell are in Washington, D. C., as guests of their cousin, Rev. E. L. Ansell, of Boonhow, China.

Miss Addie Carter Williams, of North Twenty-third Street, has returned home after a delightful visit to New York, Brooklyn and Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Ellen Guilgon has returned to the city and will have her classes this winter at No. 10 North Laurel Street.

Dr. Russell L. Cecil left Friday for Baltimore, where he will take a post-graduate course at Johns Hopkins University.

Miss Jessie Read Pendleton will give a talk on "Breathing Applied to the Voice" at the Woman's Club on Monday, October 1st, at 4:15 P. M. This is open to the public.

Mrs. S. L. Goodman, of Gordonsville, Va., has accepted a position in the Woman's College. Her daughter, Miss Nancy Lee Goodman, will be a college student.

Miss Carrie Reynolds has returned from a visit to friends in Fredericksburg, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Malvern C. Patterson have occupied their beautiful new home, "Hill Crest," one of the handsomest suburban residences recently erected near the city.

Miss Myrtle Hanzelgrove has been the recent guest of her friend, Miss Lizette Bain, of Berlin, Va.

Miss Mollie Berkeley has returned from a visit to her brother, Mr. R. F. Berkeley, of Gordonsville.

Miss Mattie Turpin has returned from a visit to Mrs. Mary Grigg, of Jetersville, Va.

Miss Katherine Warriner, of Amelia county, is expected as a guest in Richmond during Horse Show week.

Miss Evie Wright, of Franklin, Va., is in Richmond as a student of the Woman's College.

Inspector-General J. Ogden Murray has appointed Miss Dolores Rowan, of Charlottesville, and Miss Eliza Crim, of New Market, respectively, sponsor and maid of honor for the Seventh District for the Virginia Confederate Reunion at Roanoke on October 25th.

Mrs. Sabra Burt, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned to her home at Claremont, Va.

Mrs. Minnie M. Patterson is in the city after a pleasant stay with friends at South Boston, Va.

Miss Lottie Augusta Gaines, of Norfolk, Va., daughter of the Hon. William E. Gaines, is visiting their cousin, Mrs. George Gaines, 222 West Grace Street.

Miss Ellie Montgomery, of Verdon, Hancock county, is spending some weeks delightfully at Afton, Va.

Mr. R. E. Reynolds, of Chatham, Va., is a student at the University College of Medicine.

Mrs. Langhorne Putney has returned from visiting Mrs. Clayton Threandraft, in Portsmouth, Va.

Mrs. George Haynes is spending a short while in Richmond with Mrs. R. T. Hunter and her sister, Mrs. Andrew Haynes. Mrs. Haynes will spend the Richmond's Foremost Millinery Exhibit.

The Greatest Ever!

Unlike Anything Ever Shown in Richmond.

A display of Imported Models and productions from our own work-rooms--Unequalled--Original--in a class by itself. It created no small talk among the smart set.

See the display. The prettiest Hats, Toques and Round Hats ever shown here under one roof. The Season's Fashion Event, the Horse Show, will bring hundreds of strangers here. For this occasion we will have a

Special Display of Horse Show Millinery Wednesday, Oct. 3d

And Continue the Entire Week.

Reinbach

107 East Broad Street

We are members of the Retail Merchants' Association. Visitors to the Fair and Horse Show will find this establishment the most profitable to purchase Millinery.

MRS. SAMUEL WILLIAM JENNINGS.

The marriage of Miss Edwina Newman, daughter of Mrs. Octavia Newman, to Mr. Samuel William Jennings, of New York and York, Pa., took place on Wednesday evening last in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, and was an event of great interest in Richmond society. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Montague Parrish, as maid of honor, and little Miss Ann Murray, of Hampton, as ringbearer. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings received many handsome presents. They will live in New York.

later autumn at Rockbridge Baths, and with her friend, Mrs. Peyton, of Augusta county.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverly R. Selden spent last week with friends in the country.

Miss Hattie Southall is the guest of her brother, Mr. W. D. Southall, in Norfolk.

Miss Ellen Rennie has returned from a visit to her grandparents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Rennie, at Amelia, Va.

Mrs. Leslie Young and children are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Jere Lovelace, in Scottsburg, Va.

Miss Cardoso, of the Virginia Hospital, is spending some time in Harrisonburg.

Miss May Fowlkes, of South Boston, has entered Westminster School, in this city.

Mrs. Sallie O. Johnson has returned from a visit to friends in Carrsville, Va.

Mrs. Charles Loehr, who has been visiting Mrs. Oscar L. Kent, at Kent's Store, Va., will return home soon.

Mrs. McIlwaine and Miss Lizette McIlwaine, who have been spending the summer with Miss Lucy Snead, at "Windor," near Fork Union, Va., have returned home.

Misses Mary May, Estelle Fitchett, Ethel Daniel, Elsie West and Lillian Harrison, all of Waverly, Va., are attending the Woman's College.

Miss Mary Pierce has returned from a visit to her old home in Windor, Va.

Horse Show Slippers

Lavender Canvas La Monte Slippers	$3.00
Gray Canvas La Monte Slippers	$3.00
Pink Colonial Twist Pumps	$3.00
Blue Colonial Twist Pumps	$3.00
White Satin Camilla	$5.00
Black Satin Colonial Pumps	$5.00
Gold Pumps, per pair	$10.00
O'Keefe Slippers, red	$5.00

Seymour Sycle

Cor. 7th and Broad

WEST POINT, VA.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WEST POINT, VA., September 29.—Dr. C. V. Waugh, pastor of the West Point Baptist Church, and also pastor of Popersone Church, at Shackelford's, King former pastor, met with his former charge in the weekly prayer meeting this week.

Mr. Thornton Jones and sister, Miss Frances, nephew and niece of Mrs. William R. Broadus, of West Point, arrived from Texas Saturday.

Protracted services will begin at the Methodist Church Sunday, September 30th.

Mr. J. Vicar Curle accompanied the sister, Miss Mattie, of Lanexa, New Kent county, to the Memorial Hospital, Richmond, this week, where she is being treated, and is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Talley, of New York, were the guests this week of Mr. Talley's sister, Mrs. Morgan Treat.

Mr. W. C. Vaughan, of Bristol, Tenn., spent several days this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. F. Vaughan.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Clayton, of Singapore, Gloucester, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clayton several days this week.

Dr. Robert De Farges and Mr. Brand De Farges, of Washington, D. C., are on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. De Farges. They have taken in the same shooting while here.

Mr. John W. Garrett and daughter, of Tennessee, and Mr. Thomas H. Garrett, of St. Louis, are on a visit to relatives up in the country.

Mrs. Frank Garnett, of Newport News, is at home with her father, Mr. J. L. Wilber.

Mr. Erwin Lacy has returned to school in West Virginia.

Miss Nannie Gregory Edwards is visiting her sister, Mrs. William H. Notz, who has returned from a trip to Baltimore. Her sister, Miss Kate Trice, is a victim of acute fever.

Mrs. Crystal Farinetti, who spent the summer in Salina, N. C., and early fall in Asheville, returned Thursday to her home in West Point.

Mrs. Thomas P. Bagley, of West Point, Va., president of the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Baptist General Association of Virginia, issues this week a call for the annual meeting to be held in Culpeper Baptist Church, Roanoke, November 8th to 12th. The women, girls and children of Virginia raised last year, closing the first week in November, over thirty thousand dollars for missions. This was outside of the church collections.

During the meeting general mass-meetings will be held at night in the interest of foreign, home and state missions. Dr. R. J. Williamson, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, and Dr. B. D. Gray, of Atlanta, Ga., secretary of the Home Mission Board, and Rev. W. S. Leake, of Danville, have been invited to address these meetings.

among those from away who have already arrived to participate in the Gypsy event are Misses Lois Stanley and Nanette Humphreys.

The date for the wedding of Miss Mildred Davis, of this city, and Lieutenant Robert Bradford Adams, of the United States Revenue Cutter Service, has been appointed for Tuesday, October 30th.

A quiet home wedding, yet one of by far more than passing interest to local society, will be that of Miss Betty Washington Johnson, daughter of Major and Mrs. A. A. Johnson, and Mr. William Walter Love, all of this city, the marriage to take place October 17th.

Miss Elliott Emerson, daughter of President T. M. Emerson, of the Atlantic Coast Line, has returned from a delightful visit to the White Mountains.

Miss Martha Williams, after a stay at Orton Lodge, Narragansett Pier, has gone to Asheville to visit Mr. and Mrs. Tensie Coker.

Miss Mittle Lewis left the present week to visit in Richmond.

LEXINGTON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, VA., September 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Brown returned to Lexington this week from their bridal trip, and have left for their future home in Texas.

Mrs. John D. Rogers has returned to Staunton to resume her position as matron at the Virginia Female Institute, and Miss Kitty Rogers and Miss Annie Hill have entered the institution as students.

Mrs. David C. Humphreys and her mother, Mrs. Ewing, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting Washington and Old Point.

Mr. Elbert W. G. Boush, who spent a portion of his vacation in Lexington visiting his father, Mr. E. N. Boush, has returned to his duties as professor in the Georgia School of Technology.

Mrs. W. H. Harris, of Albemarle county, is in Lexington visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Poague.

Mr. A. M. Gray, of Homestead, Pa., is visiting his sister, Mrs. William H. Notz.

Mr. G. L. Cramer, of Rockbridge Baths, left Rockbridge this week in Loudoun county, where he has purchased a farm of 262 acres, for which he paid $2,800. A number of people from Rockbridge have settled in Loudoun county within the last few years.

Miss Irene Morrison, of near Lexington, has gone to Williamsburg, Va., where she has accepted the position of teacher in Williamsburg Academy.

Mr. L. Q. Jakes, of Richmond, was in Lexington this week, the guest of Mr. Fred H. White.

WAVERLY, VA.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WAVERLY, VA., September 29.—Rev. H. E. Roundtree, who was unable to fill his appointment at the Christian Church last Sunday evening, on account of sickness, is out again.

Misses Ruth and Orpha Cox, who have been spending the summer with friends here, returned to Pittsburg, their home, yesterday, accompanied by their grandmother, Mrs. Marjorie Cox.

Mrs. H. E. Roundtree, wife of the pastor of the Christian Church here, is visiting friends and relatives in Halifax county, Va.

Mr. John W. Freeson, who has been spending his vacation at Blue Ridge Springs, Va., returned home yesterday, very much improved.

THE WEEK IN STAUNTON

The Knights of Pythias held an enjoyable and largely attended smoker Tuesday night. There were a number of invited guests present. Music was furnished by the Bevel Orchestra, and an interesting program was rendered by Messrs. Norris, Hutton, Gibson and others. Informal addresses were made by Major W. H. Barkman and Mr. W. C. Marshall. Mr. Marshall gave a historical sketch of Pythianism, which was very instructive to the Knights and visitors. Refreshments were served at the conclusion.

The Augusta Teachers' Association will convene here next Thursday and Friday, and addresses will be delivered by Commonwealth Attorney R. S. Kerr, Mayor W. H. Linder, J. S. Thomas, J. D. Eggleston, Jr., and others. A large attendance is anticipated.

Dr. Bertha Berger, the newly elected, female physician to the Western State Hospital staff, has entered upon her duties as assistant female physician, in charge of the medical office.

Captain and Mrs. G. G. Green are spending some time with Mrs. R. T. Hunter, in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn Warwick have returned to Baltimore, after a short visit to Dr. and Mrs. A. Hume Sprinkle.

Mrs. John A. Alexander spent to Richmond Thursday to spend a few days.

Miss Virginia Price, who has been spending the summer here, returned to Richmond Thursday.

Miss Ellen Guilgon, after spending several days at the Frederick Hotel, returned to Richmond Wednesday.

PEOPLE IN CAROLINE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BOWLING GREEN, VA., September 29.—Mrs. S. W. Broadbent and Mrs. R. T. Glassell are spending this week in Alexandria.

Mrs. C. F. Sugg is visiting her sister, Mrs. Tupper, in New York.

Mrs. M. E. Rooters and Dr. John Winston, of Norfolk, are spending some time at Mr. R. A. Coghill's.

Mrs. John L. White has returned from Richmond, where she spent several weeks, visiting her parents Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Broadbent.

Miss Louise R. Glassell has returned home after a stay of several months in New York.

Misses Inez and Mollie Donohue, of Rutherford Glen, have returned home after a visit of a week at Mr. W. N. Covington's.

Its Status.

"How is the campaign progressing out your way?" inquired the able editor of the Polkville (Ark.) Weekly Clarion. "Well," replied Mr. Fur Springer, a prominent citizen of the Polkville neighborhood, "it's out to the point where the dogs take to the woods and the children crawl under the house, when they see a candidate coming"—Puck.

ORCHESTRA

THE Guth CAFE

CLUB LUNCHEON FORTY CENTS

Visitors Shoppers Business Men and Afternoon Callers will find the Guth Cafe just the place to get dainty dishes and quick service.

Three Nine East Broad St.

New York Washington Baltimore Richmond Chicago

Latest Novelties in Fall Millinery

Full Line. Reasonable Prices.

The Millinery Shop.

Misses Blair, Crawford and Carrie Newton.

209 N. THIRD STREET.